IMPACT REPORT

IMPROVING LIVES IN NIAGARA

When we look back just one year ago, we were preparing to welcome you to our Annual Awards Night, an evening of thanks (and lasagna!), with no indication of what was to come. Though we could not have anticipated what 2020 would bring, we are so proud that in the face of a global pandemic, we have been able to continue to support the people who rely on us. In 2020, United Way invested over $6.5 million in local programs and initiatives, helping over 130,000 people right here in Niagara.

We have you to thank for making this a reality.

Through your generous gifts and government partnerships, United Way acted quickly to address the severe impact COVID-19 is having on our communities. We could not do this alone. Our efforts have been amplified by neighbours helping neighbours, and our volunteers and agency partners in the community who help us deliver urgently needed services. Thanks to your support we have adapted existing programs, and initiated several more, to respond in our neighbourhoods and show our Local Love.

The core of who we are and the value of how we work have never been more clear. In these unprecedented times, we know our community's resilience—its survival and its future—is dependent on working together. Together we are addressing the root causes of poverty, food insecurity and isolation, increasing access to services and helping people prepare for meaningful work opportunities. The crisis is not over but we can assure you, United Way is here working hard every day to provide the support needed to weather this storm.

Sincerely,

Jeff Klassen

Board member Sean Simpson loads boxes of protein bars for volunteers to deliver across Niagara in April 2020

Though food available at food banks is great, imagine canned goods, but no can opener - this is the reality for many in our community. When board member Sean Simpson had the opportunity to source protein power bars at a low cost, he immediately thought "how many can I get?" with United Way in mind.

Protein bars are an easy nutritional option for individuals experiencing homelessness.

10,000 protein bars were distributed to food banks, homeless shelters, seniors and various outreach programs across Niagara.

Every week since the beginning of the school year, this group of friends packed care packages serving approximately 450 children and youth in at-risk neighborhoods, through United Way's After School Matters program. The women, (left to right) Margie, Fran, Jane, Trish, Judith and Ann (not pictured), rotate weeks so there are only five volunteers in the warehouse at any given time.

"In these uncertain times, we hope that the few hours we put in each week will help to keep a smile on the faces of children in Niagara," the group told us while carefully placing art canvases and paints into bags.

The care packages, which consist of nutritious snacks, and educational and fun activities, are distributed weekly.

IN A GLOBAL CRISIS

On March 20, 2020, United Way Niagara launched the COVID-19 Emergency Response Fund to help agencies delivering frontline services meet increasing demand and unforeseen challenges due to the pandemic. We saw an overwhelming response from the community from the beginning. Over $425,000 was raised through community and corporate donations and invested in essential programs across Niagara. The fund received an incredible boost with the addition of a $100,000 matching gift from The Brown Homestead in association with the Humeniuk Foundation in April.

The COVID-19 Emergency Response Fund supported agencies and organizations struggling to meet emerging or increased needs due to COVID-19. Support in the areas of emergency food, access to mental health programs, support for vulnerable seniors in isolation and increased supply of hygiene products were among those most requested needs in the early days of the pandemic. Needs shifted as restrictions were extended and changed to include new methods of service delivery and supporting connections to mitigate long-term effects of social isolation.

#UNIGNORABLE

COVID-19 is not the only crisis we are facing in Niagara.

Social issues like poverty, deteriorating mental health, addiction, social isolation and domestic violence were amplified as restrictions forced individuals and families out of work and into isolation at home. But what if there is no safe place to call home?

More Niagara residents than ever are in need of support.

"At a young age I was exposed to the violence and insecurity of street life without any idea on how to survive on my own. I spent 12 years homeless, living in constant fear. Stepping through the doors of the shelter was life-changing. I was welcomed with open arms where the staff made me feel safe for the first time. In my three month stay at the emergency shelter, I learned so many valuable skills. Having a roof over my head and food in my stomach was no longer my only concern. I took advantage of every program they had and credit all the support I received to my success in transitional housing. I am no longer homeless, I have a job I enjoy, an apartment to call my own and a healthy vision for the future. Thank you for saving my life."

POVERTY IN NIAGARA

Poverty is a complex social issue. Experiencing and living in poverty will affect every aspect of a person's life: child development, access to education and support services, housing, employment, food security and our overall physical and mental health and wellbeing. Prior to the pandemic, 1 in 7 people in Niagara were living in poverty. Unemployment rates and income loss have been at an all-time high this past year and have increased the number of those experiencing poverty.

People are spending a significant portion of their already low income to maintain increased housing and food costs. The economic impacts are even more pronounced in marginalized groups as the ripple effect of this pandemic will be felt for years to come. Only time will tell the true damage COVID-19 has caused, but for now, we know the demand for social services has nearly doubled across Niagara.

As a mother, there is no worse fear than not being able to feed your child. I was forced to stay at home because of a chronic condition and the cost of purchasing healthy food became overwhelming. ## FOOD

Access to quality, nutritious food is fundamental to human existence. Secure access to food can produce wide ranging positive impacts including: economic growth, job creation, poverty reduction, social connectedness and overall health, physical and mental wellbeing. Access to enough food for growing children and families is essential to the health of our community as a whole.

The number of families who struggle to put good food on the table is increasing as a result of layoffs, the economic downturn and isolation caused by the pandemic. We know the most significant factor of being food insecure is the lack of income. Niagara food banks reported an increase in demand of up to 30% since the onset of the pandemic as more people than ever turned to them for the first time. Access to community food programs, food banks and community gardens is essential to bridging the income gap many people in Niagara face.

IMPACT HIGHLIGHTS

29,330

individuals accessed emergency food and affordable, nutritious, appropriate food options.

14,141

youth were provided healthy lunches and snacks supporting nutrition.

11,027

people benefited from access to community gardens.

"Before my husband's illness, I never thought I would be in need of assistance for food. When we got the bad news, I instantly fell to my knees. Without an income, life became overwhelming. The bills were due and the cupboards were bare. We were desperate thinking how we would put food on the table. With the generosity of our community and the help we received, I have been relieved of my distress. We were given what we needed during this time of vulnerability. Thanks to you, we have had healthy meals on our table through this horrific time."

- Nancy

SOCIAL ISOLATION AND MENTAL HEALTH

The COVID-19 pandemic and the resulting economic downturn have negatively affected many people's mental health and created new barriers for those already experiencing mental illness or substance use disorders. As the pandemic wears on, ongoing public health measures are pushing more people to situations linked to poor mental health outcomes, such as isolation and job loss. The effects are widespread in Niagara.

Particularly concerning are the levels of suicidal thinking and self-harm, which have increased significantly since before the pandemic (+2.5%) and are further magnified (up to 20%) in certain sub-groups of the population who were already experiencing stigma, exclusion, racism and discrimination. Specifically, suspected opioid overdoses have increased by over 25% since pre-pandemic days.

Seniors experienced some of the worst outcomes including increased anxiety, depression, poor sleep quality and physical inactivity during the isolation period. We recognize the importance of mental well-being, especially during challenging times such as these. That is why United Way made significant investments this year in programs and initiatives that support the mental well-being of the most vulnerable members of our community.

"I am grateful for safe transportation to essential medical appointments. I have no family nearby, and would have had to make the choice between a ride or buying groceries if it was not for your support. Thank you."

- Ken

United Way's social isolation strategy supports programs and initiatives that help individuals build meaningful relationships and feel more included in the social fabric of their communities. The strategy focuses on creating opportunities to participate in community, forming and maintaining social networks, and establishing inclusive environments where people live, play, and work.

Programs addressing mental health and social isolation were forced to pivot quickly due to restrictions and United Way was there to support them. Thanks to your support, we invested in technology, virtual programming and increasing capacity for support across Niagara.

EXAMPLES OF UNITED WAY INVESTMENTS

- Crisis phone lines
- Crisis response for assault victims
- Outreach for addiction support
- Personal supports in shelters
- Resource referrals
- Seniors food support
- Seniors transportation
- Technology for connection
- Virtual counselling and outreach
- Youth mentorship

IMPACT HIGHLIGHTS

17,579

individuals received immediate crisis or suicide prevention/intervention supports.

EMPOWERING WOMEN AND FAMILIES

COVID-19 has created unprecedented challenges for people across our community. Women and children have been particularly vulnerable to the negative economic and social impacts of the pandemic. Job losses in industries such as food service, tourism and hospitality, have disproportionately impacted women. In addition to these job losses, uncertainty around childcare and school closures have forced many more women out of the workforce. For families with a low-income, the financial impact of these job losses can be absolutely devastating. The financial and emotional stress of the pandemic has taken a toll on the mental health of women and families. The number of people experiencing mental health challenges relating to isolation, anxiety, and stress has grown over the past year. This becomes particularly dangerous when families are isolated in an abusive household. In 2020, domestic violence calls in Niagara nearly doubled.

The impact of the pandemic on the lives of women and children in Niagara will be felt for years to come. Children and youth are resilient, but they require support from their community to overcome challenges and reduce barriers to success. We will continue to focus on supporting a network of programs that aim to create a safe community where everyone has an opportunity to reach their full potential.

IMPACT HIGHLIGHTS

31,055

youth increased emotional and physical well-being.

7,412

youth were equipped with skills and strategies to thrive.

3,489

individuals who either experienced or witnessed abuse were supported.

531

EXAMPLES OF UNITED WAY INVESTMENTS

- Counselling for abuse victims
- Court support and safety planning
- Emergency shelter
- Transitional housing supports
- Tutoring and youth literacy
- Youth mentoring

"I needed a safe place to stay, as I was fleeing abuse and could not go home. There was a space in transitional housing that became available. Since it is not temporary like a shelter, it has allowed me time to settle and rebuild. If I were not involved in this program, my options were either to stay in a shelter or become homeless while waiting for affordable housing.

This program provided me with a safe place to live, where I feel supported and where my family and I can breathe while we re-start our lives free from violence."

The Anita Robertson Legacy Award is bestowed upon individuals that have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to United Way Niagara, in memory of The Late Anita Robertson. The recipients embody the spirit of Anita in her unrelenting desire to help those most in need.

In a time when United Way needed support the most, the Trapassos came through in many ways. When the children at our After School Matters program were impacted by closures, they generously sponsored care packages for over 400 participants. In light of the need for masks in Niagara due to COVID-19, they found a way to provide an essential item to members of the community while boosting our fundraising efforts through the Masks for a Cause Initiative raising over $20,000. And, in the way that would mean most to Anita, they have made giving back to the community a part of family tradition involving their sons, Isaac and William.

Congratulations Patrizia and Domenic.

LASTING LEGACIES

In 1965, Clara Crawford bequeathed $14,000 to United Way in her will. Since then the Forever Fund, United Way's endowment fund, has grown substantially to $1,750,000. Clara Crawford's legacy continues to live on. The fund has positively impacted our community for the last 56 years and will continue to make an impact for years to come.

THANK YOU TO OUR DONORS

WOMEN UNITED™

In December, 20 Women United volunteers joined us on three evenings in groups of five to assemble 150 Welcome Home Kits. The kits are requested by agencies as they help to move homeless individuals into more permanent housing.

Kits were distributed immediately to 13 agency partners across Niagara. Welcome Home Kits are designed to ease the financial burden on individuals moving into permanent housing with essential kitchen and bathroom items.

The value of the kit is $175. United Way works with partners to bring the cost down to $75.
